Street Food Festival

🕒 Saturday 12:00 o'clock

Culinary delights in street food style, tasty cocktails, delicious beer and more! This is everything we offer you on this day on the Faschinapass. If the thought of it does not already make your mouth water, we would like to convince your taste buds. Because anyone who hears the term street food today, still doubts skeptically and draws the comparison to fast food, has long since missed the train to the pleasure station. But don't worry, we will take you with us and invite you to a culinary tour through the street food world.
